

DIOCESE OF OREGON
ACADEMY FOR FORMATION AND MISSION

Application to Participate in Winter 2012 Classes

Academy classes meet on Friday evenings from 7:00 to 8:45 (with Compline following) and Saturdays from 8:30 to 5:00, beginning with Morning Prayer and finishing with Eucharist, on seven alternate weekends beginning January 6-7, 2012 and ending the weekend of March 30-31, 2011. All classes will meet at St. Francis of Assisi in Wilsonville, just east of Exit 282 on I-5.

Academy classes provide a rich experience in education and spiritual formation to lay people, those preparing for ordination as deacons or priests, and ordained people who seek continued education. Enrollment is limited, but we are dedicated to developing classes that enable all participants to grow more fully in their ministries.

One should view an Academy course as a commitment of time and energy, represented by the payment of tuition, regular and punctual attendance, and thoughtful participation. One's admittance to a class constitutes an agreement to pay tuition ($200 per class/$125 for Friday class, or a total of $500), which is not refundable except under emergency circumstances.

Please complete the attached application by December 14, 2011 and send the document electronically to AcademyforFormationandMission@gmail.com.

Thank you for your interest in the Academy and its work. We will be in touch with you soon after the closing application date about your participation.

Yours in Christ,

Kurt Neilson and Maureen Hagen
